

The Office of the University Chaplain CO-SPONSORSHIP FUND

Office of the University Chaplain
203 Earl Hall

The Office of the University Chaplain Co-Sponsorship Fund is available to recognized Columbia University undergraduate, graduate, and professional student groups for Fall 2010. The Fund provides administrative and/or financial support to programs that focus on religion, spirituality, race, ethnicity, sexual identity, gender, social justice and community service.

Priority will be given to new initiatives that focus upon issues of faith and spirituality by recognized student groups. All programs must take place on campus and be open to all students and members of the Columbia University community. Awards will be granted in varying amounts from administrative support ($0) to $2,000 with the majority of awards given between $100 and $500. The deadline is NOON on Friday, October 1, 2010.

Prior to being accepted, the applicants must meet in person with the OUC staff to discuss their proposals. Those applicants whose proposals have been accepted are required to:

- List the Office of the University Chaplain as a co-sponsor of the event on all publicity, including posters, flyers, calendars, newspaper advertisements and broadcast messages.
- Submit a flyer and invitation to the Office of the University Chaplain prior to the event.
- After the event, write a one-page essay detailing how y event(s) contributed to strengthening coherence and unity at the University.

If you have further questions, please contact 212.854.4194 or rjw2110@columbia.edu.

(Please complete the following application (Steps 1-3) and submit to the Office of the University Chaplain, 203 Earl Hall, by the deadline listed above).
